

NOFA/Mass 2003 Organic Food Guide Certified Organic and Sustainable Farm Listing Application

1. BASIC LISTING INFORMATION

Cost: $ _____

- Certified organic farm — free! (Include copy of certification)
 Non-certified sustainable farm — $30 (sign affidavit below)

Name of farm _____
Contact name _____
Street address _____
Town, State, Zip _____
Phone number _____
E-mail _____
Web site _____

- Do not publish
 Do not publish
 Do not publish
 Do not publish
 Do not publish
 Do not publish

What specific products does your farm produce? _____

What farmer's markets do you sell at and when? _____

What stores, co-ops, or restaurants do you sell to? _____

Please send me _____ free copies of the 2003 Organic Food Guide to distribute at my farm.

2. ADDITIONAL DESCRIPTION

Cost: $ _____

- Add your own description of up to 20 words — $15 (print below)

3. DISPLAY ADVERTISEMENT

Cost: $ _____

- Small 2" x 3.5" space (business card) — $30
 Large 4" x 3.5" space — $60

You are responsible for providing "camera ready" material, either as a crisp black on bright white print-out or electronically (computer disk or e-mail attachment). Call or e-mail for tips on how to do this. Assistance to refine your existing materials is available for an extra $25.

4. TOTAL COST

Total: $ _____

- Early bird discount — $15 (postmarked by 1/25/03 or bring to the Winter Conference)

Add the costs from items 1, 2, and 3 above and subtract any discount.

Please make check payable to NOFA/Mass and return this form at the Winter Conference, or mail to Organic Food Guide, c/o Jim Coate, 350 Revere Street, Winthrop, MA 02152. All applications must be received by February 28, 2003 in order to be included in the guide. All farmers applying for a sustainable listing must sign the affidavit below:

I, _____, have raised my food according to the 2003
National Organic Certification Standards on my farm, _____.

signed _____ date _____

Questions? E-mail foodguide@nofamass.org or call 617-484-0295