Note: The social constructs of “race” and “gender” have resulted in systemic institutional racism and gender discrimination, which has made it challenging for people of color or folx with non-traditional gender identities to obtain equitable inclusion. We ask these questions as a measure toward our goal of inclusivity during the application process and ultimately to increase the diversity of our staff and board.

You can read about our commitment to racial equity and inclusion in our Racial Equity Statement here: <https://www.nofamass.org/nofamass-working-racial-equity-statement/>
